Sweet Deals at PASC

Love is in the air . So let's go to the show pen and do what we love to do!

This month PASC is proud to announce that the judges for this month's show are Andrea Simons and Patricia Fischer. Andrea is a world class judge carded in multiple breed registries including AQHA and APHA. She has come in from Texas, just to judge our show! Patricia, is an "r" rated judge from the Wellington area, and we are just as excited to have her take a break from the "A Circuit" just so that she can judge us.

We at Plantation Acres Saddle Club are here to remind you, the local exhibitor, that you don't have to spend a fortune to school your horses and still get a first rate experience. We are the greatest deal in town, and yet we don't slack in quality. At PASC you can have the big show feel with the little show price tag.

In this economy, does it make any sense to go anywhere else???

So mark your calendar, oil your leathers, polish that silver and come to show!
